5. SHARE CAPITAL

5.1 CURRENCY

Shares in the Company shall be issued in the currency of the United States of America.

5.2 AUTHORISED CAPITAL

The authorised share capital of the Company is US$100,000.

5.3 CLASSES OF SHARES

The authorised share capital of the Company is divided into two classes of shares (the “Shares”) as follows:

- (a) 10,000,000,000 Class A shares of US$0.000005 par value each (the “Class A Shares”); and
- (b) 10,000,000,000 ordinary shares of US$0.000005 par value each (the “Ordinary Shares”).

5.4 RIGHTS, QUALIFICATIONS OF SHARES

Except as provided in this Memorandum, the Class A Shares and the Ordinary Shares shall rank pari passu in all respects but shall constitute separate classes of Shares.

5.4.1 Each Class A Share has the following rights:

- (i) (subject to paragraph 5.4.4) the right to twenty five (25) votes at a meeting of members of the Company or on any resolution of members of the Company;
- (ii) the right to an equal share in any dividend or other distribution paid by the Company to the holders of the Class A Shares and the Ordinary Shares, pari passu with all other Class A Shares and Ordinary Shares; and, for the avoidance of doubt, any dividend or other distribution may only be declared and paid by the Company to the holders of the Class A Shares and the Ordinary Shares together, and not to the holders of one of those classes of Shares only; and
- (iii) the right to an equal share in the distribution of the surplus assets of the Company pari passu with all other Class A and Ordinary Shares upon the winding up of the Company.

5.4.2 Each Ordinary Share has the following rights:

- (ii) the right to an equal share in any dividend or other distribution paid by the Company to the holders of the Ordinary Shares and Class A Shares, pari passu with all other Ordinary Shares and Class A Shares; and, for the avoidance of doubt, any dividend

- (iii) the right to an equal share in the distribution of the surplus assets of the Company pari passu with all other Class A and Ordinary Shares upon the winding up of the Company.

5.4.3 Conversion

5.4.3.1 In the event of

- (i) a transfer of any Class A Shares (other than in circumstances falling within paragraph 5.4.3.2 of this Memorandum); or
- (ii) a written request to the Board made by a member holding any Class A Shares, the Class A Shares so transferred or of the member making the request shall (without any further authority other than that contained in this Memorandum) automatically convert into Ordinary Shares on the basis that each Class A Share shall automatically convert into one Ordinary Share and the Ordinary Shares resulting from such conversion shall rank pari passu in all respects with the existing Ordinary Shares then in issue.

5.4.3.2 In the following circumstances there shall be no conversion of Class A Shares into Ordinary Shares:

- (i) Where the transfer is a transfer to a Permitted Transferee in accordance with Article 4.4 of the Articles; or
- (ii) where all of the following four conditions are met (this being a transfer of a “10% A Block”):
 - a. The transfer(s) is or are of a block of Class A Shares that is held by one holder of Class A Shares or by members who are Affiliated with each other (and, for this purpose only, the definition of “Affiliates” shall be deemed to be amended so that, in addition to the existing definition, members shall also be treated as “Affiliates” if they are members of each other’s Immediate Family, or if one or both of them is a custodian, trustee, executor or other fiduciary solely for the account of members of the same or the other’s Immediate Family) and carries more than 10% of the total number of votes that may be cast at a general meeting of members (and for the purposes of this sub-paragraph a., the Founding Members shall be considered Affiliates of each other);

b. such block is either:

- (I) transferred at the same time to one transferee; or
- (II) is transferred to more than one transferee solely by virtue of the fact that one or more Other Members have exercised their Shareholder Option pursuant to Article 4.3;

c. none of the Class A Shares (falling within the 10% A Block) are placed into an IPO or sold on a stock exchange on which any of the shares (or depository receipts representing the shares) are already admitted to trading following an IPO; and

d. such transferee (to the extent not already a member) executes a deed poll expressly acknowledging and accepting (on behalf of itself and with binding effect on its Permitted Transferees) that the Class A Shares so transferred to it will be subject to the voting restrictions set out in paragraph 5.4.4 of this Memorandum, provided that, where sub-paragraph b.(II) applies, only those Class A Shares, forming part of the 10% A Block that are transferred to members that already, as at the time of the transfer, hold any Class A Shares, shall not convert into Ordinary Shares (and Class A Shares forming part of the 10% A Block that are transferred to members that, as at the time of transfer, only hold Ordinary Shares shall themselves automatically convert into Ordinary Shares upon transfer).

- (iii) Any other transfer where there is a 75% Resolution of Members in favour of the Class A Shares remaining Class A Shares and not converting to Ordinary Shares.

5.4.3.3 For the purposes of this paragraph 5.4.3, “IPO” shall mean the admission of all or part of the share capital of the Company (or any depository receipts representing such share capital or part thereof) to trading on a recognised stock exchange.

5.4.4 Voting Restrictions

For the purpose of this paragraph 5.4.4, a “Non Russian Shareholder” is a member of the Company who (i) if an individual, is not a Russian citizen or (ii) if not an individual, is itself ultimately beneficially owned (as to more than 50%) or controlled by a person or persons who are not Russian citizens.

5.4.4.1 No Non Russian Shareholder, whether by itself or with its Affiliates or in combination with any other Non Russian Shareholder with whom it has a voting agreement or arrangement (except for the voting agreements between the Company and certain members that were approved by a 75% Resolution of Members), shall be entitled to cast more than 35% of the votes actually cast at any meeting of the members of the Company (and, if such Non Russian Shareholder does attempt to cast votes in excess of that 35% limit, such excessive votes shall be ignored for the purpose of calculating the number of votes actually cast at any meeting).

5.4.4.2 If, following the transfer of any 10% A Block to any Non Russian Shareholder (or to any person who subsequently becomes a Non Russian Shareholder), the votes that are actually cast at any meeting of the members of the Company by all Non Russian Shareholders exceed 45% of the total votes that are cast at such a meeting (the "45% Ceiling"), then the votes attaching to such 10% A Block shall be reduced to the extent that they cause the 45% Ceiling to be exceeded (or further exceeded); provided that

- (i) (without prejudice to the separate 35% limit in paragraph 5.4.4.1 on votes that may be cast by any Non Russian Shareholder) the above vote reduction mechanism shall not reduce the votes attaching to any shares held by the Designated Member, but shall rather reduce, down to the 45% Ceiling, the votes attaching to any other 10% A Blocks that may have been transferred to any Non Russian Shareholder(s) other than the Designated Member (such reduction, where there are more than one such Non Russian Shareholders with 10% A Blocks, to be made pro rata to the total number of votes held by such Non Russian Shareholders inter se); and further provided that
- (ii) if a shareholders' meeting has to be adjourned because it is inquorate, then at the adjourned meeting the 45% Ceiling shall not apply, unless at least one of the Key Russian Shareholders is present and casts its votes at that adjourned meeting.

For the avoidance of doubt, the foregoing provisions shall not limit the level of the economic interest that any member may hold in the Company.

5.4.5 Joint Voting

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Articles or the Memorandum and subject to paragraphs 5.4.1(i), 5.4.2(i) and 5.4.4, at a meeting of members of the Company or on any written resolution of members of the Company, the votes attaching to shares that are cast by members at such a meeting or in such a resolution shall always be counted and be deemed cast, together (and not as separate classes of shares), regardless of whether they are votes attaching to Class A Shares and/or Ordinary Shares.

5.5 REGISTERED SHARES

The Company may only issue shares in registered form. The issuance of bearer shares by the Company is not permitted.

5.6 TRANSFER OF SHARES

Registered shares in the Company may be transferred subject to the prior or subsequent approval of the Company, as evidenced by a resolution of directors or by a resolution of members, provided that in respect of any transfer of Ordinary Shares, no such prior or subsequent approval shall be required if the transfer was made in full compliance with the provisions of this Memorandum and the Articles.

6. AMENDMENTS

The Company may amend its Memorandum and Articles in any way permitted by the Act by a resolution of members or a resolution of directors.

7. DEFINITIONS

Words defined in the articles of association of the Company annexed hereto shall have the same meanings in this Memorandum.

We, the undersigned of the address stated below for the purpose of incorporating an International Business Company under the laws of the British Virgin Islands hereby subscribe our name to this memorandum of association the 4th day of May, 2005 in the presence of the undersigned witness:

If a depositary (or its nominee) does require the Company to issue a share certificate, such certificate shall be issued under the Company’s seal alone (without signature).
- 2.2 If several persons are registered as joint holders of any shares, any one of such persons may be given receipt for any dividend payable in respect of such shares.

3. SHARES, AUTHORISED CAPITAL AND CAPITAL

- 3.1 Subject to Articles 3.2, 3.11 and 9.21.6, the directors may offer, allot, grant options over, or otherwise dispose of, shares (whether in the original or any increased capital) of the Company to such persons at such times and for such cash consideration and generally on such terms and conditions as the directors may determine by a Resolution of Directors, provided that no shares shall be issued at a discount below their par value.
- 3.2 Subject to Article 3.3, unless the conditions on which the directors are proposing to issue shares (whether directly, pursuant to a grant of options, or otherwise) are approved by a 75% Resolution of Members, the following conditions shall apply to all share issues by the Company:
 - 3.2.1 the Company shall not issue any further Class A Shares or Ordinary Shares without offering each member (in a notice to all such members issued by a Resolution of Directors) such number of Class A Shares and/or Ordinary Shares (as the case may be) as may be necessary to maintain the same percentage economic interest in the aggregate number of the issued Class A Shares and Ordinary Shares as each such member had immediately before the new share issue; and each such member shall be entitled to exercise its rights hereunder in respect of the whole or part only of such number of shares; provided that:

3.2.1.1 (without prejudice to each member's right to so maintain its percentage economic interest) members holding Class A Shares only shall be offered Class A Shares and members holding Ordinary Shares only shall be offered Ordinary Shares; and

3.2.1.2 if a member holds both Class A Shares and Ordinary Shares, such member shall have the right to purchase such number of Class A Shares and Ordinary Shares as is necessary to maintain such member's percentage economic interest in each such class of shares separately;

3.2.2 any proposed issue of shares shall be for a cash consideration only (in freely convertible currency), and the same cash consideration per share shall be offered to each member as that payable for any shares to be issued to any third party; and

3.2.3 any offer for share subscription made by the Company shall remain open for a period of not less than fourteen (14) calendar days from the date of notification to the members of the proposed increase of the issued share capital of the Company contained in any notice to members.

3.3 If a share issue is approved by a 75% Resolution of Members under Article 3.2, but such resolution is not approved by all of the members, the Company (acting through the Board) may in its discretion offer to any member who did not approve the resolution such number of shares as that member or members would have been entitled to under Article 3.2.1 if the issue had not been approved by a 75% Resolution of Members and the following provisions shall apply to such offer.

3.3.1 The Company may determine whether to make an offer under this Article 3.3 to any member or members in its discretion and if it makes an offer under this Article to one or more members who did not approve the relevant 75% Resolution of Members it shall not be obliged to also make offers to the others.

3.3.2 To the extent that the share issue approved by a 75% Resolution of Members is for cash consideration, any offer under this Article 3.3 shall also be for cash consideration at the same price per share as the share issue that was approved by the 75% Resolution of Members.

3.3.3 To the extent that the share issue approved by a 75% Resolution of Members is to be made other than for cash, the offer under this Article 3.3 shall be at such cash price per share as the directors (acting in good faith) consider to be equal to the value per share of the non-cash consideration due to the Company in respect of the share issue approved by the 75% Resolution of Members.

3.3.4 Where an offer is made under this Article 3.3 to more than one member, such offer may additionally provide that, if it is accepted by more than one member to whom it is made, the number of shares that may be acquired by an accepting member may be increased (if an accepting member so wishes) so that following the new share issue, such accepting member has the same percentage economic interest in the aggregate number of the issued Class A Shares and Ordinary Shares as it had immediately before the new share issue.

- 3.3.5 If any offer made under this Article 3.3 is accepted, the Company shall be entitled to issue shares to satisfy that acceptance and Article 3.2 shall not apply to that issue.
- 3.4 In the event that any member does not elect to take up his entitlement to further shares within the notification period referred to in Article 3.2.3, the Company shall, with the approval of a 75% Resolution of Members, be at liberty to offer the shares not taken up to any third party or to any other member in excess of his pro rata entitlement.
- 3.5 No share in the Company may be issued until the consideration in respect thereof is fully paid, and when issued the share is for all purposes fully paid and non-assessable save that a share issued for a promissory note or other written obligation for payment of a debt may be issued subject to forfeiture in the manner prescribed in these Articles.
- 3.6 Subject to approval by a 75% Resolution of Members, shares in the Company may be issued for services rendered, personal property, an estate in real property, a promissory note or other binding obligation to contribute money or property or any combination of the foregoing, but no such approval shall be required for the issuance of shares subscribed for in freely convertible currency.
- 3.7 Shares in the Company may be issued for such amount of consideration as the directors may from time to time by Resolution of Directors determine, except that in the case of shares with par value, the amount shall not be less than the par value, and in the absence of fraud the decision of the directors as to the value of the consideration received by the Company in respect of the issue is conclusive unless a question of law is involved. The consideration in respect of the shares constitutes capital to the extent of the par value and the excess constitutes surplus.
- 3.8 Upon the issue by the Company of shares without par value, if an amount is stated in the Memorandum to be authorized capital represented by such shares, then each such share shall be issued for no less than the appropriate proportion of that amount which so constitutes capital; otherwise, the consideration payable in respect of such share shall constitute capital to the extent designated by the directors and the excess shall constitute surplus (except that the directors must designate as capital an amount of the consideration that is at least equal to the amount that the share is entitled to as a preference, if any, in the assets of the Company upon liquidation of the Company).
- 3.9 Treasury shares may be disposed of by the Company on such terms and conditions (not otherwise inconsistent with these Articles) as the Company may by Resolution of Directors determine.
- 3.10 The Company may issue fractions of a share and a fractional share shall have the same corresponding fractional liabilities, limitations, preferences, privileges, qualifications, restrictions, rights and other attributes of a whole share of the same class or series of shares.

- 3.11 Without prejudice to Articles 3.2 and 9.21, when granting options, the Board shall only be entitled to issue options over Ordinary Shares (and not Class A Shares), provided that (without limiting the foregoing) in relation to incentivisation schemes for employees and consultants, the Board may adopt phantom schemes that do not require the issue of any shares.
- 3.12 The Company may, subject to any limitations imposed by the Act and these Articles, purchase, redeem or otherwise acquire and hold its own shares but only out of surplus or in exchange for newly issued shares of equal value.
- 3.13 No purchase, redemption or other acquisition of the Company's shares by the Company shall be made unless the directors determine that immediately after the purchase, redemption or other acquisition the Company will be able to satisfy its liabilities as they become due in the ordinary course of its business and the realizable value of the assets of the Company will not be less than the sum of its total liabilities, other than deferred taxes, as shown in the books of account, and its capital and, in the absence of fraud, the decision of the directors as to the realizable value of the assets of the Company is conclusive, unless a question of law is involved.
- 3.14 Subject to provisions to the contrary in:
- 3.14.1 the Memorandum or these Articles;
 - 3.14.2 the designations, powers, preferences, rights, qualifications, limitations and restrictions with which the shares were issued; or
 - 3.14.3 the subscription agreement for the issue of the shares,
- the Company may not purchase, redeem or otherwise acquire its own shares without the consent of members whose shares are to be purchased, redeemed or otherwise acquired.
- 3.15 A determination by the directors under Article 3.13 is not required where shares are purchased, redeemed or otherwise acquired:
- 3.15.1 pursuant to a right of a member to have his shares redeemed or to have his shares exchanged for money or other property of the Company;
 - 3.15.2 by virtue of a transfer of capital pursuant to Article 6.3; or
 - 3.15.3 pursuant to an order of the Court.
- 3.16 Shares that the Company purchases, redeems or otherwise acquires pursuant to the preceding Articles may be cancelled or held as treasury shares. Upon the cancellation of a share, the amount included as capital of the Company with respect to that share shall be deducted from the capital of the Company.
- 3.17 Where shares in the Company are held by the Company as treasury shares or are held by another company which the Company controls, such shares of the Company are not entitled to vote or to have dividends paid thereon and shall not be treated as outstanding for any purpose except for the purpose of determining the capital of the Company.

4.1 Subject to the limitations in the Memorandum, registered shares in the Company may be transferred by a written instrument of transfer signed by the transferor and containing the name and address of the transferee, but in the absence of such written instrument of transfer the directors may accept such evidence of a transfer of shares as they consider appropriate. The Company shall not be required to treat a transferee of a registered share in the Company as a member until the transferee's name has been entered in the share register.

4.2 (i) Except with the approval of a 75% Resolution of Members or as permitted by Article 7.1, each member holding Class A Shares agrees not to create or permit to subsist any pledge, lien, charge or other security interest over, or grant any option or other rights over or dispose of any legal or beneficial interest in, all or any of the Class A Shares held by it otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of these Articles. Where a transfer of Class A Shares is made in accordance with the provisions of these Articles, the Board shall be bound to pass a resolution approving the transfer of the shares and the entry of the transfer in its books. Any transfer of any Class A Shares or any interest in any shares in violation of any provision of these Articles shall be null and void and the Company shall not record such transfer on its books or treat any purported transferee of such shares or any such interest as the owner or such interest for any purpose.

(ii) Ordinary Shares shall be freely transferable and subject to Article 4.1 each member holding Ordinary Shares may create or permit to subsist any pledge, lien, charge or other security interest over, or grant any option or other rights over or dispose of any legal or beneficial interest in, all or any of the Ordinary Shares held by it. Subject to Articles 4.1 and 4.6, the Company shall be bound to accept any transfer of Ordinary Shares made in full compliance with the provisions of these Articles and the Memorandum and to enter the transfer in its books.

4.3 THE RIGHT OF FIRST OFFER

4.3.1 Transfer Notice Re Class A Shares

If any member (the “Selling Shareholder”) wishes to accept a bona fide offer negotiated on arm’s length terms and conditions from a third party or another member legitimately intending to acquire any or all of the Class A Shares held by such member in the circumstances described in paragraph 5.4.3.2(ii) of the Memorandum (Transfer of 10% A Block), the Selling Shareholder shall first give written notice (a “Transfer Notice”) to the Company and the Other Members containing (i) the number of Class A Shares held by the Selling Shareholder which are proposed to be transferred (in each case, the “Offered Shares”), (ii) the purchase price per share (the “Offer Price”) which the Selling Shareholder proposes to be paid for each of the Offered Shares, (iii) the identity of the proposed transferee of the Offered Shares; (iv) a priority offer to sell all (but not less than all) of the Offered Shares to the Company (the “Priority Option”) at a price per share equal to the Offer Price and (v) an offer, if the Company does not exercise the Priority Option, to sell all (but not less than all) of the Offered Shares to the Other Members (the “Shareholder Option”) at a price per share equal to the Offer Price.

4.3.2 Acceptance Periods

(a) The Company shall have the right during a period of 30 days after the date of receipt of an effective Transfer Notice (the “Company Priority Period”) to exercise the Priority Option in respect of all (but not less than all) of the Offered Shares at a price per share equal to the Offer Price by delivering written notice of acceptance to the Selling Shareholder (with a copy to the Other Members) within the Company Priority Period. The exercise of the Priority Option shall not require a 75% Resolution of Members or pro rata redemption of shares; and Article 9.21.9 shall not apply to the exercise by the Company of the Priority Option.

If the Company exercises the Priority Option within the Company Priority Period,

- (i) the Shareholder Option shall lapse and be null and void; and
- (ii) the Offered Shares so acquired by it shall be cancelled in compliance with the provisions of Article 6 and, until they are so cancelled, not be transferred to any person.

(b) If the Company does not exercise the Priority Option before the expiry of the Company Priority Period or the Company notifies the Selling Shareholder and the Other Members within the Company Priority Period that it does not wish to exercise the Priority Option, the Other Members shall have the right, during a period of 30 days from the end of the Company Priority Period or (if earlier) the date of receipt of such notice from the Company (the “Response Period”), to accept the offer made pursuant to the Transfer Notice to purchase all and not less than all of the Offered Shares at the Offer Price per share by delivering written notice of acceptance to the Selling Shareholder within the Response Period; provided, however, that in order for this option to be deemed exercised prior to the end of the Response Period, the Selling Shareholder must have received acceptances from all or some of the members (the “Accepting Offerees”) (and in the event two or more Accepting Offerees are willing to purchase the Offered Shares, such acceptances shall be deemed to have been received from each Accepting Offeree in respect of a proportion of the Offered Shares calculated on a pro rata basis according to the number of shares which each Accepting Offeree then holds) to purchase shares which in the aggregate must be equal to the number of Offered Shares as indicated in the Transfer Notice.

4.3.3 Closing

The closing of the sale of the Offered Shares to the Company or the Accepting Offerees (as the case may be) shall be held at an office in a place and on a date mutually agreed upon by the Selling Shareholder and either the Company or the Accepting Offerees (as the case may be) which is not less than 10 days nor more than 15 days after the end of the Company Priority Period or the Response Period (as the case may be); and, in default of agreement, in a place and on a date specified by the Company. At the closing, the Company or the Accepting Offeree(s) (as the case may be) shall each deliver the aggregate Offer Price for the Offered Shares to be purchased by it in accordance with the terms of the offer set forth in the Transfer Notice, and the Selling Shareholder shall deliver (either at the meeting or in any other necessary location) such documents as may be required to effect the transfer of the Offered Shares, free and clear of all liens, claims and encumbrances.

4.3.4 Sale

If, at the end of the Response Period, none of the Other Members have given notice of its or their decision to purchase all of the Offered Shares, then the Selling Shareholder shall be entitled for a period of 60 days beginning on the day after the expiration of the Response Period to sell the Offered Shares to the transferee specified in the Transfer Notice at a price per share not lower than the Offer Price and on terms not more favourable to the transferee than were contained in the Transfer Notice. In the event of such sale, the Board shall resolve to enter the transfer of the Offered Shares in the books of the Company. Promptly after any sale pursuant to this Article 4.3.4, the Selling Shareholder shall notify the Other Members of the consummation thereof and shall furnish such evidence of the completion (including time of completion) of such sale and of the terms thereof as the Other Members may reasonably request.

4.3.5 60-Day Open Period

If, at the end of any such 60-day period provided for in Article 4.3.4, the Selling Shareholder has not completed the sale of the Offered Shares, the Selling Shareholder shall no longer be permitted to sell any of such Offered Shares pursuant to this Article 4.3 without again fully complying with the provisions of this Article 4.3 and all the restrictions on sale, transfer, assignment or other disposition contained in this Article 4.3 shall again be in effect.

4.3.6 Waiver

The provisions of Article 4.3 may only be waived by a 75% Resolution of Members.

4.4 PERMITTED TRANSFERS

4.4.1 In the event of any member (the “Transferring Shareholder”) wishing to transfer his Class A Shares:

- (i) (in the case of a Transferring Shareholder that is not an individual) to its general or limited partner, controlling shareholder or Affiliate and (in the case of a Transferring Shareholder that is a Tiger Associate) to other Tiger Associates;
- (ii) to a member of the Transferring Shareholder’s Immediate Family, or to a custodian, trustee, executor or other fiduciary solely for the account of members of the Transferring Shareholder’s Immediate Family or the Transferring Shareholder; or
- (iii) (in the case only where the Transferring Shareholder is either a Founding Member or any of the persons or entities set forth in sub-paragraph (i) or (ii) above in relation to a Founding Member), to another Founding Member or to a transferee who, in relation to a Founding Member, falls within any of the categories of person set forth in sub-paragraph (i) or (ii) above, then the provisions of Article 4.3 (Right of First Offer) shall not apply.

Any of the persons or entities set forth in clause (i), (ii) or (iii) above shall be a “Permitted Transferee” of the Transferring Shareholder.

- 4.4.2 The Transferring Shareholder shall send at least 10 days’ prior written notice to the Company specifying the number of Class A Shares to be transferred and the proposed transferee. The reasonable evidence of the transferee being a Permitted Transferee shall be attached to such notice and the directors shall approve the transfer provided the directors are reasonably satisfied that the transfer meets the requirements of Article 4.4.1.

4.5 ANTI-AVOIDANCE

4.5.1 Where a Transferring Shareholder who is a Substantial Shareholder has transferred any Class A Shares to a Permitted Transferee and such Permitted Transferee at any time ceases to qualify as one of the persons listed under Article 4.4.1(i), (ii) or (iii) in relation to the Transferring Shareholder, such former Permitted Transferee shall forthwith (and no later than seven (7) calendar days after ceasing to qualify as a Permitted Transferee) transfer all of the Class A Shares acquired from the original Transferring Shareholder back to that Transferring Shareholder (or to another Permitted Transferee of that Transferring Shareholder who does so qualify); and the Company shall not treat a former Permitted Transferee that fails to comply with the provisions of this Article 4.5.1 as a member, for so long as the former Permitted Transferee has not complied with the provisions of this Article 4.5.1.

4.5.2 If a Substantial Shareholder (other than a member who is an individual) should cease to be ultimately beneficially owned (as to more than 50%) or controlled by its Original Owner, such member shall forthwith (and in any event no later than seven (7) calendar days after ceasing to be so owned or controlled) transfer all of the Class A Shares it holds to its Original Owner or to another person that is a Permitted Transferee of its Original Owner; and the Company shall not treat a member that fails to comply with the provisions of this Article 4.5.2 as a member for so long as the member has not complied with the provisions of this Article 4.5.2.

4.5.3 The Company shall be entitled, from time to time, to require any Substantial Shareholder or Permitted Transferee of any Substantial Shareholder to produce reasonably satisfactory evidence to establish that it continues (i) to qualify as a Permitted Transferee (where applicable) or (ii) to be ultimately beneficially owned (as to more than 50%) or controlled by its Original Owner.

4.6 MANDATORY OFFER REQUIREMENTS

Save where the proposed acquirer is a person who was already a member on 27 August 2010 (or is an Affiliate of such member), no transfer or issue of the Class A Shares shall be registered by the Company if the result of such transfer or issue would be that the proposed acquirer (taken together with any person acting in concert with him) would have an interest(s) in Class A Shares and/or Ordinary Shares that would together carry 75% or more of the voting rights of the Company, unless such acquirer has made or simultaneously makes an unconditional cash offer to all other holders of Class A Shares or Ordinary Shares (which shall be open for acceptance for a period of not less than 14 calendar days from the making of the offer) to purchase such shares at not less than the highest price paid by such transferee (or by any person determined by the Board to be acting in concert with him) (or the cash equivalent, as determined by the Board, of any non cash consideration) for any interest in shares (including those included in the proposed transfer or issue) in the preceding 12 months, or, if no such acquisitions have taken place in respect of such class of shares, at a price and on terms determined by the Board to be comparable to the offer for the other class of shares. For the purposes of this Article 4.6, the term “interest(s) in share(s)” shall have the meaning given in the UK Takeover Code, as amended from time to time and a person who acquires an interest in global depository receipts relating to Ordinary Shares shall be taken for the purpose of this definition to have acquired an interest in the underlying Ordinary Shares.

5. TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

- 5.1 The executor or administrator of a deceased member, the guardian of an incompetent member or the trustee of a bankrupt member shall be the only person recognised by the Company as having any title to his shares but they shall not be entitled to exercise any rights as a member of the Company until they have proceeded as set forth in the next following regulation.
- 5.2 Any person becoming entitled by operation of law or otherwise to a share or shares in consequence of the death, incompetence or bankruptcy of any member may be registered as a member upon such evidence being produced as may reasonably be required by the directors. An application by any such person to be registered as a member shall be deemed to be a transfer of shares of the deceased, incompetent or bankrupt member and the directors shall treat it as such, and, in respect of Class A Shares, there shall be no requirement to follow the provisions of Article 4.3 for such a deemed transfer.
- 5.3 What amounts to incompetence on the part of a person is a matter to be determined by a court of competent jurisdiction having regard to all the relevant evidence and the circumstances of the case.

6. REDUCTION OR INCREASE IN AUTHORISED CAPITAL OR CAPITAL

- 6.1 Subject to Article 9.21, the Company may by a Resolution of Directors amend the Memorandum to increase or reduce its authorised capital and in connection therewith the Company may in respect of any unissued shares increase or reduce the number of such shares, increase or reduce the par value of any shares or effect any combination of the foregoing.
- 6.2 The Company may amend the Memorandum to:
- 6.2.1 divide the shares, including issued shares, of a class or series into a larger number of shares of the same class or series; or
 - 6.2.2 combine the shares, including issued shares, of a class or series into a smaller number of shares of the same class or series;

provided however, that where shares are divided or combined under this Article, the aggregate par value of the new shares must be equal to the aggregate par value of the original shares.

- 6.3 The capital of the Company may by a Resolution of Directors be increased by transferring an amount of the surplus of the Company to capital.
- 6.4 Subject to the provisions of Articles 6.5 and 6.6, the capital of the Company may by Resolution of Directors be reduced by transferring an amount of the capital of the Company to surplus.
- 6.5 No reduction of capital shall be effected that reduces the capital of the Company to an amount that immediately after the reduction is less than the aggregate par value of all outstanding shares with par value and all shares with par value held by the Company as treasury shares and the aggregate of the amounts designated as capital of all outstanding shares without par value and all shares without par value held by the Company as treasury shares that are entitled to a preference, if any, in the assets of the Company upon liquidation of the Company.
- 6.6 No reduction of capital shall be effected unless the directors determine that immediately after the reduction the Company will be able to satisfy its liabilities as they become due in the ordinary course of its business and that the realisable assets of the Company will not be less than its total liabilities, other than deferred taxes, as shown in the books of the Company, and its remaining capital, and, in the absence of fraud, the decision of the directors as to the realisable value of the assets of the Company is conclusive, unless a question of law is involved.
- 6.7 Subject to Article 9.21, where the Company reduces its capital the Company may:
- 6.7.1 return to its members any amount received by the Company upon the issue of any of its shares;
 - 6.7.2 purchase, redeem or otherwise acquire its shares out of capital; or
 - 6.7.3 cancel any capital that is lost or not represented by assets having a realisable value.
- 6.8 The Company may by a Resolution of Directors include in the computation of surplus for any purpose the unrealized appreciation of the assets of the Company, and, in the absence of fraud, the decision of the directors as to the value of the assets is conclusive, unless a question of law is involved.

7. MORTGAGES AND CHARGES OF SHARES

- 7.1 Any member shall, notwithstanding Article 4.2 , be entitled to mortgage or charge his shares in the Company, provided that if the mortgage or charge is over a block of Class A Shares that is held by one holder of Class A Shares (or by members who are Affiliated with each other within the meaning of paragraph 5.4.3.2 of the Memorandum) and carries more than 10% of the total number of votes that may be cast at a general meeting of members the mortgagee or chargee must first have irrevocably agreed in writing that (i) the proposed transfer of any of such shares to such mortgagee or chargee by reason of the latter foreclosing on its mortgage or charge and (ii) any proposed subsequent sale of the shares by that mortgagee or chargee (once it has foreclosed) shall, unless the relevant Class A Shares have been converted into Ordinary Shares under paragraph 5.4.3.1(ii) of the Memorandum prior to such transfer or sale, both be subject to the provisions of Article 4.3 (Right of First Offer), save that the Offer Price for each of the Offered Shares shall, in the case of (i) above, be the fair market value determined by the Board. Upon satisfactory evidence thereof the Company shall give effect to the terms of any such valid mortgage or charge, subject to any requirements herein contained in relation to the transfer of shares.

7.2 In the case of the mortgage or charge of shares there may be entered in the share register of the Company at the request of the registered holder of such shares:

7.2.1 a statement that the shares are mortgaged or charged;

7.2.2 the name of the mortgagee or chargee; and

7.2.3 the date on which the aforesaid particulars are entered in the share register.

7.3 Where particulars of a mortgage or charge are so registered in the share register of the Company, such particulars shall only be cancelled:

7.3.1 with the consent of the named mortgagee or chargee or anyone authorized to act on his behalf; or

7.3.2 upon evidence satisfactory to the directors of the discharge of the liability secured by the mortgage or charge and the issue of such indemnities as the directors shall consider necessary or desirable.

7.4 Whilst particulars of a mortgage or charge remain registered in the share register of the Company, no transfer of any share comprised therein shall be effected without the written consent of the named mortgagee or chargee or anyone authorized to act on his behalf (provided that a Transfer Notice served in accordance with Article 4.3 by, or with the consent of, the mortgagee or chargee shall be deemed to constitute such written consent).

8.1 When shares issued for a promissory note or other written obligation for payment of a debt have been issued subject to forfeiture, the following provisions shall apply.

8.2 Written notice specifying a date for payment to be made and the shares in respect of which payment is to be made shall be served on the member who defaults in making payment pursuant to a promissory note or other written obligations to pay a debt.

8.3 The written notice specifying a date for payment shall:

- 8.3.1 name a further date not earlier than the expiration of 14 days from the date of service of the notice on or before which payment required by the notice is to be made; and
- 8.3.2 contain a statement that in the event of non-payment at or before the time named in the notice the shares, or any of them, in respect of which payment is not made will be liable to be forfeited.
- 8.4 Where a written notice has been issued and the requirements have not been complied with within the prescribed time, the directors may at any time before tender of payment forfeit and cancel the shares to which the notice relates.
- 8.5 The Company is under no obligation to refund any moneys to the member whose shares have been forfeited and cancelled pursuant to these provisions. Upon forfeiture and cancellation of the shares the member is discharged from any further obligation to the Company with respect to the shares forfeited and cancelled.

9. MEETINGS AND CONSENTS OF MEMBERS

- 9.1 The directors may convene meetings of the members of the Company at such times and in such manner and places within or outside the British Virgin Islands as the directors consider necessary or desirable.
- 9.2 Upon the written request of a member or members holding shares carrying in aggregate 30% or more of the outstanding votes in the Company, the directors shall convene a meeting of members.
- 9.3 The directors shall give not less than 14 days' notice of meetings of members to those persons whose names on the date the notice is given appear as members in the share register of the Company and are entitled to vote at the meeting. The directors may fix the date notice is given of a meeting of members as the record date for determining those shares that are entitled to vote at a meeting.
- 9.4 A meeting of members held in contravention of the requirement in Article 9.3 is valid if a 75% Resolution of Members approved a shorter notice of the meeting.
- 9.5 The inadvertent failure of the directors to give notice of a meeting to a member, or the fact that a member has not received notice, does not invalidate the meeting.
- 9.6 A member or members holding in aggregate 10% or more of the outstanding voting shares of the Company may add items to the agenda of a meeting of members (i) no later than a week before such meeting of members or (ii) during a meeting of members with consent of members holding in aggregate more than 50% of outstanding voting shares of the Company.
- 9.7 A member may be represented at a meeting of members by a proxy who may speak and vote on behalf of the member and a member may complete separate proxies (which may be in favour of the same person) in respect of some or all of its shares, provided that it does not appoint more than one proxy in respect of the same share.

- 9.8 The instrument appointing a proxy shall be produced at the place appointed for the meeting before the time for holding the meeting at which the person named in such instrument proposes to vote.

- 9.10.2 if only one of the joint owners is present in person or by proxy, he may vote on behalf of all joint owners, and
- 9.10.3 if two or more of the joint owners are present in person or by proxy, they must vote as one.
- 9.11 A meeting of members is duly constituted if, at the commencement of the meeting, there are present in person or by proxy more than 50% of the votes of the shares entitled to vote on any resolution of members to be considered at the meeting, provided that if the meeting is to consider any matter that requires a 75% Resolution of Members, the quorum in respect of such resolution shall be present only if there are present in person or by proxy more than 75% of the votes of the shares entitled to vote on such a resolution of members to be considered at the meeting. - 9.12 If within two hours from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, it shall stand adjourned to the next business day at the same time and place or to such other time and place as the directors may determine and, if at the adjourned meeting there are present within one hour from the time appointed for the meeting in person or by proxy not less than 30% of the votes of the shares entitled to vote on the resolutions to be considered by the meeting, those present shall constitute a quorum (provided that in relation to any resolution relating to any matter which requires approval by a 75% Resolution of Members, the quorum in respect of such resolution shall be present only if there are present in person or by proxy more than 75% of the votes of the shares entitled to vote on resolutions of members to be considered at the meeting), but otherwise the meeting shall be dissolved.

- 9.13 At every meeting of members, the Chairman of the Board shall preside as chairman of the meeting. If the members are unable to choose a chairman for any reason, then the person representing the greatest number of voting shares present in person or by prescribed form of proxy at the meeting shall preside as chairman, failing which the oldest individual member or representative of a member present shall take the chair.
- 9.14 The chairman may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn any meeting from time to time, and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
- 9.15 Any person other than an individual shall be regarded as one member and, subject to Article 9.16, the right of any individual to speak for or represent such member shall be determined by the law of the jurisdiction where, and by the documents by which, the person is constituted or derives its existence. In case of doubt, the directors may in good faith seek legal advice from any qualified person and, unless and until a court of competent jurisdiction shall otherwise rule, the directors may rely and act upon such advice without incurring any liability to any member.
- 9.16 Any person (not being an individual) which is a member of the Company may by resolution of its directors or other governing body authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of the Company, and the person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the member which he represents as that member could exercise if it were an individual member of the Company.
- 9.17 The chairman of any meeting at which a vote is cast by proxy or on behalf of any person other than an individual may call for a notarially certified copy of such proxy or other authority to cast a vote on behalf of such person, which notarially certified copy shall be produced within 7 days of being so requested or the votes cast by such proxy or on behalf of such person shall be disregarded.

- 9.18 The directors may attend and speak at any meeting of members of the Company.
- 9.19 An action that may be taken by the members at a meeting may also be taken by a Resolution of Members (or a 75% Resolution of Members, where applicable) consented to in writing or by email, facsimile or other written electronic communication, without the need for any notice, but if any resolution of members is adopted otherwise than by the unanimous written consent of all members, a copy of such resolution shall forthwith be sent to all members not consenting to such resolution. The consent may be in the form of counterparts, each counterpart being signed by one or more members.
- 9.20 Any member or its representative may participate in a meeting of the members by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment whereby all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other and participation in a meeting in this manner shall be deemed to constitute presence in person at such meeting.
- 9.21 Approval of Reserved Matters

Unless approved by a 75% Resolution of Members, the Company shall not do or, to the extent within its power, permit to be done any of the following or anything the effect of which is analogous or similar in substance to any of the following:

- 9.21.1 make any amendment to the Memorandum or these Articles (save that no such resolution of members shall be required for a variation in the authorised share capital resolved upon by the directors pursuant to Article 6.1) or other constitutional documents, except that (i) any amendment to Article 4.6 (mandatory offer requirements) shall require a 95% Resolution of Members and (ii) any other amendment to such constitutional documents that varies or affects the rights attached to any class of shares shall require a resolution of members for which:
- (a) if approved at a duly constituted meeting of the members of the Company, the majority of votes in favour of such resolution is at least 75% of the total number of votes attached to the issued and outstanding shares of such class; or
 - (b) if consented to in writing, it was so consented to by members holding shares which represent at least 75% of the total number of votes attached to the issued and outstanding shares of such class;

- 9.21.3 change the authorized number of directors;
- 9.21.4 remove all directors;

- 9.21.5 amend the constitutional documents of any Portfolio Company in a way that causes either the Company or any entity that it controls to lose any shareholder rights in relation to such Portfolio Company (other than pursuant to a bona fide restructuring as a result of which either the Company or any other entity that it controls retains all such shareholder rights in relation to such Portfolio Company);
- 9.21.6 issue any new Class A Shares or securities convertible into Class A Shares, or grant any options over Class A Shares;
- 9.21.7 authorize or issue, or obligate itself to issue, any equity security (including any other security convertible into or exercisable for any such equity security) either (a) having a preference over the Class A Shares and/or the Ordinary Shares or (b) in exchange for shares in any Portfolio Company;
- 9.21.8 consummate any merger, consolidation or similar event that is a Substantial Transaction;
- 9.21.9 redeem, purchase or otherwise acquire (or pay into or set aside for a sinking fund for such purpose) any shares, unless such redemption, purchase or acquisition applies pro rata to all members;
- 9.21.10 the Company or any entity which it controls or any Portfolio Company agreeing, undertaking or discontinuing a Substantial Transaction (as defined in Article 9.22); or
- 9.21.11 exclude any company from the list of Portfolio Companies,

9.22 A Substantial Transaction is either of the following:

9.22.1 A transaction by the Company or any entity which it controls where:

Gross Assets the subject of the transaction = a percentage exceeding 15%
Equity of the Company

Or

Gross Assets the subject of the transaction x PCH = a percentage exceeding 15%
Equity of the Company

The “Equity of the Company” means (i) the number of shares in issue at the relevant date multiplied by (ii) the weighted average of the daily closing prices

Or

Thereafter the Elected Directors shall be appointed for a period from the date of their appointment until the expiry of the second annual general meeting of the Company occurring after the date of their appointment, at which annual general meeting all of the Elected Directors shall resign (but shall be eligible for re-election, if nominated pursuant to Article 10.4).

10.4 Any member or members holding in aggregate not less than 10% of the total number of votes attached to the issued and outstanding shares shall be entitled to nominate candidates for election by the members as Elected Directors, such nomination to be made not less than 21 days prior to any annual general meeting at which any Elected Director is to be appointed by lodging a written notice at the registered office of the Company for the time being, giving the names of its or their proposed candidates for the position of Elected Director and the written consent of any such candidate to act as a director, if elected.

10.9 A director may resign his office by giving written notice of his resignation to the Company and the resignation shall have effect from the date the notice is received by the Company or from such later date as may be specified in the notice.

10.10 In the event of any Elected Director vacating office prior to the expiry of his term of office (otherwise than under Article 10.8), the Board shall appoint to the Board in his stead a person nominated either (i) by the member(s) that nominated the director whose removal, resignation or death caused the vacancy or (ii) if such members do not nominate anybody, by the Board; and such person shall hold office until the expiry of such term.

 - 10.14.2 the date on which each person whose name is entered in the register was appointed as a director of the Company; and
 - 10.14.3 the date on which each person named as a director ceased to be a director of the Company.
- 10.15 If the Board determines to maintain a register of directors, a copy thereof shall be kept at the registered office of Company and the Company may determine by Resolution of Directors to register a copy of the register with the Registrar of Companies.

and, without prejudice to the rights of the members under these Articles (including Article 9.21), the members shall not have power to pass any resolution in conflict with the resolutions of the Board made in accordance with this Article.

11.2 The Managing Director (being the chief executive officer of the Company) appointed under Article 13.1 shall have the right (unless otherwise determined by the Board from time to time and subject to any guidelines adopted by the Board from time to time, if applicable) to authorise or approve any transaction on behalf of the Company and to exercise any rights that the Company may have, provided that, unless otherwise approved by the Board from time to time, this authority shall not include:

- if the agreement provides for payments that vary dependent on the circumstances, the value shall be the highest amount that might reasonably be expected to be payable (calculated at the time of signature);
- if the agreement provides for regular payments, but does not specify a termination date, the value shall be the amount payable over the longest period that is most reasonably likely (calculated at the time of signature), or (if no such period can be determined) over 10 years provided that the agreement permits termination by the Company within such 10 year period;
- any other costs and expenditure that the Company is reasonably likely to incur (calculated at the time of signature) with respect to the transaction (including fees and royalties payable to any third party that provides services to the Company, as well as any taxes and custom duties that may be payable by the Company with respect to the transaction) shall be included;
- any fines, penalties, damages and other additional payments that may become due from the Company, if it were in default, shall be included if it is reasonably likely (at the time of signature) that they will become payable.

For the purpose of determining whether a transaction involves the assumption of liabilities of more than US$10,000,000 (ten million dollars), if the transaction requires the Company to secure third party obligations, regard shall be had to the total value of any obligations secured by the Company through a deposit, surety or any other means.

The Managing Director and any Chief Financial Officer appointed under Article 13.1 shall be authorised to operate any bank account of the Company in accordance with any guidelines adopted by the Board from time to time.

- 11.3 Subject to Article 13.1, the directors may, by a Resolution of Directors, appoint or remove any person, including a person who is a director, to be an officer or agent of the Company. - 11.9 An Elected Director shall be entitled to pass any confidential information relating to the business of the Company received in the course of fulfilling the duties of a director of the Company on to any member who nominated him pursuant to Article 10.4, but on the basis that both such Elected Director and any such member shall otherwise keep such information confidential and not disclose it to any other person except that disclosure shall be permitted in the following circumstances, namely:
 - 11.9.1 to a member's Affiliates, officers, employees and agents, in each case to the extent required to enable such Party to carry out its obligations under this Agreement and provided that each such Affiliate, officer, employee and agent shall first be made aware by such Director or member of the confidential nature of the information and shall be required by such Director or member to observe the same restrictions on the use of the confidential information as are contained in this Article 11.9;

If a member becomes required to disclose (including by way of announcement) any confidential information relating to the business of the Company in the circumstances contemplated by Article 11.9.3, then the member shall, if and to the extent it is practical and legally permissible in the circumstances to do so, give to the Company notice of such disclosure and shall consult with the Company, having due regard to its views, with regard to the terms, timing and manner of the required disclosure of such confidential information.

14.2 A director who has an interest in any particular business to be considered at a meeting of directors or members may be counted for purposes of determining whether the meeting is duly constituted.

14.3 The Company shall not (and, to the extent within its power, shall procure that no company which it controls or Portfolio Company shall), whether by amendment, merger, consolidation or otherwise:

- (i) knowingly enter into any transaction with a Mail.Ru Connected Person that has a total value of more than US$100,000 (other than any contract or amendment thereof concluded on arm’s length terms with any consultant, employee, officer or director of the Company or of any company that the Company controls in respect of his services to the Company or to any such company); or

- (ii) knowingly enter into any transaction with a Member Connected Person that has a total value or more than US$500,000 on anything other than arms' length terms

(in each case, a “Related Party Transaction”), without either

- (I) (in the case of a Related Party Transaction that involves any of the reserved matters listed in Article 9.21.1 to 9.21.10) a 75% Resolution of Members that has been approved by at least 75% of the votes of those Non-Interested Members who cast their votes; or
- (II) (in all other cases) a Resolution of Directors approved by a majority of Non-Interested Directors.

- 5. any corporation, partnership or other entity which such person or Immediate Family member controls;

“Non-Interested Member” shall be any member other than a member who is (or who qualifies as one of the persons listed under the relevant paragraph 1–5 above in relation to) the Mail.Ru Connected Person or Member Connected Person that is a party to the Related Party Transaction in question.

- 14.4 Where the Board, acting in good faith, considers that either (i) a member who has nominated one or more of the Elected Directors (each an “Affected Director”) or (ii) an Affiliate of such a member or (iii) any Elected Director himself, may be in competition with the Company (or any company in which the Company directly or indirectly holds a shareholding of more than 25%) in relation to a particular corporate transaction (such as an acquisition or joint venture) (the “Competing Transaction”), the Board shall first seek clarification or confirmation with regard thereto from the member or Affected Director concerned. Where he becomes aware of a Competing Transaction, the Affected Director shall also bring this potential conflict to the attention of the Board. The Affected Director shall be entitled to participate in all meetings and discussions, and receive the same information as all other directors, in relation to the Board’s decision as to whether it considers the member or its Affiliate or Affected Director to be interested in a Competing Transaction, but shall not vote on such decision. Once the Board has made due enquiries from the member and, in good faith, resolved that the member or its Affiliate or Affected Director (as the case may be) is interested in a Competing Transaction, the Board shall be entitled to resolve (i) to exclude the Affected Director from participating in those parts of its meetings and discussions that relate to the Competing Transaction and/or (ii) not to provide information or written resolutions relating to such Competing Transaction to such Affected Director until after the Competing Transaction has been concluded or abandoned either by the Company or by the member (or its Affiliate) or Affected Director. In addition, the Affected Director shall not vote on Board decisions relating to a matter that the Board has in good faith resolved is a Competing Transaction. For the avoidance of doubt, the Board may not consider that a member or its Affiliate or any director is interested in a Competing Transaction by sole reason of the fact that the member or any of its Affiliates or the director generally operates in the same industry as the Company.

- 15.1 Subject to the limitations hereinafter provided, the Company may indemnify against all expenses, including legal fees, and against all judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement and reasonably incurred in connection with legal, administrative or investigative proceedings, any person who:

- 15.3 The decision of the directors as to whether the person acted honestly and in good faith and with a view to the best interests of the Company and as to whether the person had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful shall, in the absence of fraud, be sufficient for the purposes of these Articles, unless a question of law is involved.
- 15.4 The termination of any proceedings by any judgment, order, settlement, conviction or the entering of a nolle prosequi shall not, by itself, create a presumption that the person did not act honestly and in good faith and with a view to the best interests of the Company or that the person had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.
- 15.5 If a person to be indemnified pursuant to Article 15.1 has been successful in defence of any proceedings referred to in that Article, the person shall be entitled to be indemnified against all expenses, including legal fees, and against all judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the proceedings.
- 15.6 The Company may purchase and maintain insurance in relation to any person who is or was a director, an officer or a liquidator of the Company, or who at the request of the Company is or was serving as a director, an officer or a liquidator of, or in any other capacity is or was acting for, another company or a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against the person and incurred by the person in that capacity, whether or not the Company has or would have had the power to indemnify the person against the liability under Article 15.1.

- 16.4 No dividend shall be declared and paid unless the directors determine that immediately after the payment of the dividend the Company will be able to satisfy its liabilities as they become due in the ordinary course of its business and the realisable value of the assets of the Company will not be less than the sum of its total liabilities, other than deferred taxes, as shown in its books of account, and its capital. In the absence of fraud, the decision of the directors as to the realisable value of the assets of the Company is conclusive, unless a question of law is involved.

- 16.5 Notice of any dividend that has been declared shall be given to each member in the manner specified in Article 19 and all dividends unclaimed for 3 years after having been declared may be forfeited by Resolution of Directors for the benefit of the Company.
- 16.6 No dividend shall bear interest as against the Company and no dividend shall be paid on shares described in Article 3.17.
